

Footpaths and open spaces update October 2023

1. Ponies will be back on the cliffs at Escalls and Mayon imminently with fencing and safety measures in place.
2. I walked around Sennen and took photos of the pavements to send to Cornwall Council. The Clerk has emailed Highways with the photos and asked for clarification about their maintenance schedule.
3. No footpath issues have been reported.
4. Environment group have been discussing and researching wild flower area maintenance plans.
